LIABILITY INSURANCE SUMMARY

Non Owned Liability $1,000,000
(no coverage for physical damage to hired, rented, non owned, or borrowed autos)

Terms and Conditions for Coverage:

1. Waiver and Release –All members must be of sound mind and have a completed, signed, and dated Liability Waiver and Release (provided as part of the USJA Membership Application) on file (see "Downloads" on the web-site), or as may be provided to you by the USJA National Office. If the Participant is a minor, the Waiver must be signed by a parent or authorized custodian for such persons under the age of 18. Failure to have a Waiver on file for any club or dojo member, official, referee, volunteer or participant in the club activities or sanctioned events may void the USJA sanction and/or eligibility for the USJA insurance coverage.

2. Premises Guest Voluntary Medical Payments Coverage – Up to $5,000 first-aid costs for any one guest accidentally injured at a USJA or member dojo or sponsored / sanctioned, event. Participants, members, and volunteers are not insured under this coverage part. See the separate USJA Participant Accident Excess Medical insurance coverage summary for accidental injury coverage to enrolled USJA members or volunteers while engaged in USJA sanctioned, authorized or approved activities.

3. Prohibited Contact / Conduct – No coverage is provided for martial arts activities involving the use of weapons, or kick boxing (particularly pointed or sharpened blades, or projectiles.) Nor is coverage provided for free sparring activities unless the dojo has obtained from each student a signed and dated copy of written USJA rules that include at the minimum these statements:

- a) No contact is permitted to the head (except light contact to headgear), face, neck, or groin.
- b) Headgear, mouthpieces, and padded kicking boots are required for participants of disciplines other than Judo, Jujitsu and Aikido.
- c) Groin cups are required for males, and chest protectors are suggested for female participants of disciplines other than Judo, Jujitsu and Aikido.
- d) No coverage for injury arising from object striking or breaking demonstrations.

4. Significant Exclusion: No defense or indemnity will be provided for liability claims or suits against members not holding evidence that they have completed one of the following head injury trauma trainings to prevent and minimize the risk of injury from concussion:

- U.S. Centers for Disease Control www.cdc.gov/headsup
- www.SafeSport.com
- <http://doctoroz.com/article/fact-sheet-concussions>

These listed trainings are free or of minimal cost and take about 40 minutes. The CCD site requires completion of an easy & brief test at the end in order to qualify for a Certificate of Completion capable of being printed immediately upon passing the exam.

5. Non Owned and Hired Vehicles – The policy insures USJA employees, directors and officers, using personal or rental private passenger vehicles in the conduct of errands for

LIABILITY INSURANCE SUMMARY

USJA BUT NOT TRANSPORTATION OF ATHLETIC PARTICIPANTS TO/FROM ATHLETIC EVENTS, NOR DAMAGE TO SUCH PERSONAL OR RENTAL VEHICLES OR THEIR CARGO.

It is important for club owners, coaches, volunteers or any other entity who transport participants, referees, equipment, or other personnel to have their own auto liability insurance policy in effect with adequate limits and form. The USJA Hired & Non Owned Auto policy does not provide insurance to these persons.

Recommended minimum auto liability insurance that clubowners, coaches, referees, volunteers and others should maintain (contact your insurance agent or broker):

$500,000 Bodily Injury ("BI") any one person
$500,000 Bodily Injury all persons in one accident
$250,000 Property Damage ("PD") any one accident

Or

$500,000 BI/PD Combined Single Limit bodily injury / property damage per occurrence.

Coordination of Benefits with Other Organizations

When participating in events co-sanctioned with other organizations who have applicable insurance, the USJA policy will respond in conformance with its "Other Insurance" and "Excess Insurance" clauses.

The policy contains Warranties based upon representations by USJA.:

- a) Existence of a Participant Accident Injury Excess Medical Insurance policy.
- b) Requiring all members and participants to have signed Membership and Injury Waivers, meeting sanction requirements, and compliance with USJA, USJI / USA Judo, or USJF specific rules.
- c) Use of certain sparring protective devices for certain martial art disciplines
- d) Any tournament conducted without USJA, USJI / USA Judo, or USJF sanction is not an insured tournament.

Failure to adhere to the above warranties, membership rules including payment of dues, sanction fees, etc., may jeopardize or void coverage.
